Adnan Sarhan, founder of the Sufi Foundation, is internationally known for his "Rapid Method." Adnan leads participants in a wide range of timeless techniques. Exercises, meditation, drumming, movement, chanting, dancing and whirling are used to develop the higher intelligence of the heart. Over the years, Adnan has conducted workshops at prestigious institutions around the world including St. James' Church in London; World Congress of Psychology in Switzerland; the Earth Summit in Brazil; Church of St. John the Divine, New York and many others.

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT ADNAN'S WORKSHOPS:

"Adnan can take the students to extraordinary perceptions in a brief time." — InnerSelf Magazine

"I started to doubt if I ever meet a real Sufi master who will pay so much attention to music, poetry and dancing in life, in spiritual path as you, as Sufis of the past. Thank you very much." — Yana Petrova, Radio Russia, Moscow

"You have taught me how to encourage the positive and discourage the negative." — Don Blasius, Ph.D. Dept. of Mathematics, Yale University

"Each time I attend one of your workshops, I feel afterwards a surge of creative energy. My concentration grows enormously." — Francisco Javier Sanchez Gonzalez, Head, Speech, Processing Laboratory, Madrid, Spain

"Adnan reveals something indecipherable about humankind's place in the universe, about the nature of being in the moment." — Ron Gibson, Echo Newspaper, Byron Bay, Australia

"The significance of what Adnan does is ecumenical, as his emphasis is on the spiritual brotherhood of all people. The experience of his work is as valid for Christians and Jews as it is for Moslems." — James Parks Morton, Dean, Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine, NY
